Fri: Acts 4:1-12;
John 21:1-14

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23;
Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4; Gospel: Mark 16:1-7/John 20:1-9

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia!

These closing words of the Easter Sequence beautifully proclaim what we carry within us and proclaim in faith during this most blessed Easter Season. This Season of 50 days celebrates our life and mission as people of God—followers of the Risen One! Sent forth to witness the Good News!

We are reminded by the women at the tomb—loving, courageous women—that in losing it all we gain life, ever more abundant life. When everything else disappears only Love remains, only God. The tombs of death and darkness, hatred and violence, are forever made new. The resurrection of Jesus proclaims that Love will forever have the final word. Love speaks to us, calling us forth. Sending us. Transforming all fear, all sadness, to new hope, life and joy. The Risen One goes before us. He awaits us. As St. Paul tells us: “We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.” The same is true for us! Amen! Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

Pope Francis Encourages Our Youth

On Palm Sunday, Pope Francis urged young people not to be silent and to let their voices be heard, even in the face of the silence of adults and leaders. The pope's message comes on the heels of a meeting of 300 young Catholics from throughout the world who met with him at the Vatican. The youth who urged that the church to be completely transparent and authentic in our commitment to the Gospel. This occurred a day after hundreds of thousands of youth marched and participated in rallies across the United States to demand greater gun control.

"The temptation to silence young people has always existed," Francis said. "There are many ways to silence young people and make them invisible. ... There are many ways to sedate them, to keep them from getting involved, to make their dreams flat and dreary, petty and plaintive." But he told youth in his homily that "you have it in you to shout," even if "we older people and leaders, very often corrupt, keep quiet." Francis urged youth to join those who offer praise Jesus and not those calling for crucifixion. He urged the young Catholics to embrace their role in the church and society as witness of joy and life!

Easter Sunday prayer

O Lord,

How amazing is your love,
A love that overcomes,
endures and redeems.
How astounding is your life,
A life that sustains, heals and creates.
How awesome is your hope,
A hope that promises, restores and inspires.
How absorbing is your truth,
A truth that releases, changes and rebuilds.
How we worship you, as we remember the moment when your love conquered.

When out of the cave of sorrow Jesus arose to release forgiveness and peace to the world.
And each time we encounter this resurrection day
we are again lifted to an eternal place.
Our sin, brokenness and darkness fall away and your light and peace flood our lives.
How we thank you for this incredible celebration
we call Easter.

Amen.

“This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad!” Psalm 118
