

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

May 27, 2018

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40; Psalm 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22;
Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17; Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

“Go therefore, and make disciples...”

How interesting that our celebration of the Most Holy Trinity should call us to “make disciples.” The central theme of Matthew’s gospel and the final words of Jesus urge us to follow him. Disciples of Jesus are not isolated. Faith is lived in community—a God centered community. This community of the Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, is a community of infinite love. As Moses in the Book of Deuteronomy, “This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other.”

St. Augustine refers to the Most Holy Trinity as Lover, Beloved, and Love. A relational God that transforms us with love and enables us to live as witnesses of all that we are and all that we have received as children of God. We live in faith, hope and love, trusting in the promise and final words of Jesus in Matthew’s Gospel: “I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

If you are not yet registered, or if you have any changes or current special needs, please take a few moments to complete the form. Completed forms can be left in the collection basket or dropped off or mailed to the parish office. Thank you!

Stop Human Trafficking Presentation

We had a compelling presentation this past Thursday on human trafficking with Sister Gloria Loya, Liaison to Stop Human Trafficking for our Diocese. The panelists urged all of us to be observant and if we see something that “just doesn’t seem right” and we think that someone might be a victim to call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center at 1-888-3737-888 or our Sheriff’s Department. Information about human trafficking is available at www.acf.hhs.gov/trafficking.

- The panel of experts who were with us are: Deborah Pembroke, Monterey Rape Crisis Center, and a survivor of trafficking;
- Deacon Warren Hoy, Office of Family Life and Social Concerns of the Diocese of Monterey;
- Sergeant Bryan Hoskins, Detective for the Monterey County Sheriff’s Department;
- Officer Terri Edwards, Detective and Investigator with the DA’s Office;
- Donna Galletti, Crime Prevention Specialist, Monterey County Sheriff’s Department

We thank Lonni Trykowski and Sister Gloria, organizers of our event, the parishioners who generously helped with the setup and hospitality, and all who participated. Let us pray that we can do what is possible as people of God—the Most Holy Trinity—as individuals and as a parish to stop the violence of human trafficking enslaving the lives of so many of God’s sacred and beloved children.

“Human trafficking is a crime against humanity. We must unite our efforts to free victims and stop this crime that has become ever more aggressive, that threatens not just individuals, but the foundational values of society.” —Pope Francis

Youth Corner (Matthew 28:16-20)

Our God—the Holy Trinity— is a God of love! We have been created in God’s image, sent forth by Jesus and empowered by the life of the Spirit to love and serve as God loves and serves us. By recognizing God active in our lives we are gifted with the power to follow Jesus as disciples—LIVING IN GOD’S LOVE!
