

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 1, 2018

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-34; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13;
Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15; Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

“I say to you, arise!”

The Book of Wisdom beautifully reminds us that our God is a God of Life, not death: “God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being...” All of us are from God. And Jesus, in today's gospel, shows us that God brings life, healing and wholeness to those who place their faith in him. Large crowds gathered as he went “to the other side”—where the desperate and marginalized are found.

Jesus brings hope and new life to the suffering. Jairus, the synagogue official, and the woman who had suffered with hemorrhages for twelve years are both gifted with healing and new life because of their faith in the Lord. Jairus is told, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” The infirmed woman, too, reminds us that it is our faith that saves us. Like the young daughter of Jairus, we are called by Jesus to “arise!” Together, with him, we “arise” to new life for ourselves and for those desperately in need of our love, healing and hope.

A Fourth of July Prayer for Our Nation

Bless our beautiful land, O Lord, with its wonderful variety of people, of races, cultures, and languages. May we be a nation of laughter and joy, of justice and reconciliation, of peace and unity, of compassion, caring, and sharing. We pray this prayer for a true patriotism, in the powerful name of Jesus our Lord. Amen.

—Archbishop Desmond Tutu

There will be a Mass celebrated in prayer for our nation on Wednesday, July 4th at 7:00 am.

In response to the situation of family separation at the border, COPA (Communities Organized for Relational Power in Action) is organizing an inter-faith prayer service this Sunday at 2:30-3:30 pm at St. Mary of the Nativity Church, 424 Towt St., Salinas. The service will immediately be followed by the launch of a campaign urging local officials to show that this is a welcoming community by addressing the issues that affect immigrant families every day: housing, healthcare, safety, education, and economic opportunity.

Please join COPA and people of faith throughout the region to show your support and solidarity with families at the border and our immigrant families here.

Youth Corner (Mark 5:21-43) Sometimes we think that our lives really aren't that important to God. Our readings this Sunday, actually tell us just the opposite. Like Jesus, we are to lift up others, helping and supporting them in their needs. In doing so we bring them healing and new life!
