“My grace is sufficient for you...”

Martyred Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero of El Salvador, a prophetic voice of the Church, will be canonized by Pope Francis on October 14, 2018. In his writings, Archbishop Romero tells us: “Wherever there is someone who has been baptized, that is where the church is. There is a prophet there. Let us not hide the talent that God gave us on the day of our baptism and let us truly live the beauty and responsibility of being a prophetic people.” Our readings this Sunday remind us of our prophetic mission. Prophets are often asked to carry an unpopular message from God to a hardhearted people.

The love of the Father spoke to the Heart of Jesus. He acted with God’s compassion and justice, aware that speaking on behalf of the poor would be unacceptable to the powerful. Therefore, he told Paul, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” With Paul, may we respond, “Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.”

Bishop Richard Garcia - Update

Bishop Garcia continues to receive care. He is stable and recently has made small strides of improvement. The Bishop and his family are really enjoying all the cards and letters students and others have sent him. They are much appreciated.

At this time, Bishop Garcia is still not accepting visitors. However, our prayers, interceding for him, are encouraged and most welcome. Let us lift him and all those who are in need of healing up to God, our source of mercy and compassion.

Human Trafficking—Day of Action

Youth Corner (Mark 6:1-6)

Prophets speak and act for God in the service of God's people—especially the poor and rejected. We are all called by God to do what is right and just to act with nonviolence to help and protect others.
