

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 3, 2019

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19; Psalm 71:1-6, 15, 17;
Second Reading: 1 Cor. 12:31-13:13; Gospel: Lk 4:21-30

“They were all filled with fury.”

The prophetic Word rooted in love is very often unwelcome. For this reason, even in his hometown of Nazareth, Jesus’ relationship with the Father, the God of Love, was unwelcome. He spoke clearly about breaking boundaries and barriers, taking God’s saving love to all peoples.

As we gather this Sunday, we, too, like Jesus, are called in baptism to be prophetic voices for our time. We are asked by our Lord to speak the truth on behalf of others and witness God’s love as the source of life and life eternal. The love of Jesus of Nazareth is a sacrificial love. This is the love that Paul presents to the early community of Corinth. It is often known as “agape,” love. The highest form of love or charity.

God’s Kingdom, proclaimed by Jesus, comes about as our lives are given over to God with faithfulness and courage. Like the young prophet Jeremiah, God knows us intimately. May we reflect and reveal God’s love by living the prophetic dimension of our baptism—a love without limits.

DAILY GOSPEL READINGS

Feb. 4-8, 2019

Mon: Mark 5:1-20

Tues: Mark 5:21-43

Wed: Mark 6:1-6

Thurs: Mark 6:7-13

Friday: Mark 6:14-29

Welcome, Bishop Daniel E. Garcia

Bishop Daniel Garcia’s installation took place last Tuesday, January 29. Eight parishioners attended the very special Mass to represent Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Let us continue to pray for Bishop Daniel and his new ministry of shepherding our Diocese of Monterey.

National Day of Prayer for African American Families

On this first Sunday of February, which is Black History Month, we join with the Church throughout the United States for the National Day of Prayer for African American Families.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Married couples are invited to share in the blessings of a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend. During this year of 2019, weekends will be taking place on April 5-7 and Oct. 25-27, at the St. Francis Retreat Center in San Juan Bautista. If you have any questions or would like more information, please call Bob and Ann Herendeen at 831-663-2452.

Capital Campaign Update

Planning for our parish facilities update continues with the concerns of the parish community in mind. That includes reducing scope of the update to be bounded by our ability to fund the project without debt, and without selling any parish assets, including the vacant lot or rectory. Our building fund provides a substantial start to funding the update project, but our upcoming Capital Campaign will be critical to its success. More information on the refined scope of the project and the Capital Campaign will be provided in the weeks ahead.

Pax Christi USA: Spirituality of Nonviolence and Peacemaking

Grounded in the Gospel and Catholic social teaching, Pax Christi USA promotes Christian non-violence on the personal, communal, national and international levels. Believing in the gospel call to conversion as found in the Beatitudes, Pax Christi USA denounces and resists the evils of violence while striving to reflect the Peace of Christ.

For more information about Pax Christi, please visit their website: paxchristiusa.org.

Welcome to Our Lady of Mount Carmel!

We are very happy to have you with us. If you are new to the parish, please register as a parishioner of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Registration forms are available at the main entrance of the church. Thank you.

The Safe Environment Program

We, the church of God, have a responsibility to protect the most vulnerable among us from harm. The Safe Environment Program provides safeguards to ensure that children and other vulnerable persons will be safe while in the care of the Church. The program also protects ministers and other volunteers by giving them a set of rules and standards to govern their activities.

For more information about the Safe Environment Program, please speak with Deacon Warren Hoy at 831-645-2845 or whoy@dioceseofmonterey.org.

We, your clergy are profoundly sorry for the abuse that has occurred in the past, and we pledge to do everything in our power to prevent a single case of abuse from ever happening again.

4 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Jeremías 1:4-5, 17-19; Sal. 71; 1 Cor. 12:31-13:13;
Lucas 4:21-30

Jesús, en el Evangelio, señala que el profeta casi nunca es aceptado por los suyos, dándole a entender a los miembros de la sinagoga de Nazaret que Dios también se hace presente entre los Gentiles. El no conoce las fronteras o paredes humanas que existen por diferencias humanas. Los profetas, por lo tanto, proclaman la esperanza en medio de las injusticias, y claman por la paz en medio de los conflictos. Recibimos también el gran ejemplo del profeta Jeremías. El amor verdadero que proclama Pablo es el amor que nos guía con la fidelidad y valor de Jesús.

Youth Corner (Luke 4:21-30)

Have you ever been rejected for your faith? Or criticized for what you believe and value as a follower of Jesus? If so, you are living your prophetic vocation! Living our baptismal faith calls us to witness God's love, mercy and justice. Jesus was rejected by his neighbors because of his faithfulness to the will of God the Father. We, too, are called to live boldly God's will!
