DAILY GOSPEL READINGS

Feb. 18-22, 2019

Mon: Mark 8:11-13

Tues: Mark 8:14-21

Wed: Mark 8:22-26

Thurs: Mark 8:27-33

Friday: Matt 16:13-19

First Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8; Psalm 1:1-2, 3, 4, 6;
Second Reading: 1 Cor. 15:12, 16-20; Gospel: Lk 6:17, 20-26

“Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.”

We are told by the powerful words of Jeremiah: “Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the Lord... Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is in the Lord.” The prophet’s message prepares us for the Beatitudes of Jesus in Luke’s Gospel. Jesus, speaking to the large crowd of disciples and others in need from distant places, urges them—and us—to live with the hope and strength of our faith and trust in God. Those who experience poverty, hunger and suffering, although hated and excluded because of their commitment to the Lord, are called Blessed. Whereas those who place their trust in the powers of the world and wealth are warned of the fate of the false prophets!

As followers of Christ, we live with faith in God and our loving solidarity with the poor. Together we embrace our blessed commitment to God’s Kingdom. “Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.”

The Introduction to the Document On Human Fraternity
For World Peace and Living Together

Faith leads a believer to see in the other a brother or sister to be supported and loved. Through faith in God, who has created the universe, creatures and all human beings (equal on account of his mercy), believers are called to express this human fraternity by safeguarding creation and the entire universe and supporting all persons, especially the poorest and those most in need.

This transcendental value served as the starting point for several meetings characterized by a friendly and fraternal atmosphere where we shared the joys, sorrows and problems of our contemporary world. We did this by considering scientific and technical progress, therapeutic achievements, the digital era, the mass media and communications. We reflected also on the level of poverty, conflict and suffering of so many brothers and sisters in different parts of the world as a consequence of the arms race, social injustice, corruption, inequality, moral decline, terrorism, discrimination, extremism and many other causes.

From our fraternal and open discussions, and from the meeting that expressed profound hope in a bright future for all human beings, the idea of this Document on Human Fraternity was conceived. It is a text that has been given honest and serious thought so as to be a joint declaration of good and heartfelt aspirations. It is a document that invites all persons who have faith in God and faith in human fraternity to unite and work together so that it may serve as a guide for future generations to advance a culture of mutual respect in the awareness of the great divine grace that makes all human beings brothers and sisters. [For the full document go to: www.ourladycarmelvalley.org]
