

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 21, 2019

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10a; Psalm 15:2-5;
Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28; Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

“Let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves.”

Hospitality has always been very sacred to God’s people. Abraham recognizes the Lord God visiting him in three strangers in need. He and Sarah are rewarded for their kindness toward the travelers with a son. In Matthew 25:35, Jesus tells us that when we welcome a stranger we welcome him. Hospitality to Jesus is offered by Martha and Mary in our gospel this week. We, too, are invited to serve Jesus through our lives.

Luke tells us that Martha and Mary showed their love for the Lord by welcoming him into their home. Martha generously serves Jesus and Mary attentively listens to him. According to Jesus, “Mary has chosen the better part.” It’s important to note that Mary is sitting in the position of a disciple, learning from her Teacher. In a time when only men were students and disciples, God’s word is offered to everyone! We are all called to share his life. The greatest act of hospitality is offered by Jesus himself! He receives all of us with love. Let us follow his example.

May the love of Mary always guide us!

Let Us Pray: Let Us Share the Journey

Lord, God of Communion and Encounter, Many are the journeys your people have taken: Abraham's journey to understanding, Moses' journey to freedom, the disciples' journey from death to new life. Even today, your people journey—immigrants and refugees, pilgrims and nomads, searching for hope, searching for opportunity, searching for life, searching for you. Lord, I know that I, too, am called to journey. Continue to call me beyond my comfort into encounter. And when I meet a companion on the road, may we find you in each other's embrace. Amen.

Youth Corner (Luke 10:38-42)

We all receive different gifts to serve God and neighbor. We are reminded today of the gift of hospitality. The gift of welcoming and receiving others. So many youth feel alone and unwelcome. May our love and friendship fill their hearts with hope and joy!
