Those who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord Ps. 15

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words “a certain man.” Today's reading opens with the words “a certain woman.” The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

Capital Campaign—Dedication of Donors Plaque— for Our Parish Hall & Blessing of the Painting of Our Lady

For many years the parish discussed the scope and scale of a much needed renovation and building program as little improvement work had been done since the 1970s. By 2018 a feasible project outline became clear and to support this work a Capital Campaign began in March 2019 concluding three years later in April 2022. Thanks to the generous support of the parish community, the Campaign raised nearly $800,000 from just over 100 donors. Campaign funds were combined with years of parish savings in the building fund and profits from our commemorative brick offering. Together this enabled the construction and renovation of the parish hall as well as improvements to the church and church office costing nearly $1.3 million dollars – all without parish debt. This is a remarkable achievement for a small parish like OLMC and helps to renew the parish for many years to come, and we should all Thank God for making this possible.

Saint of the week: July 14th
St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Lawrence of Brindisi was born in Italy in 1559. After he was ordained a priest, he devoted his life to preaching. He was most attentive to correcting the errors by Reformation preaching. Because he spoke eight languages, he was a popular and powerful preacher in several countries.

Lawrence became known for his goodness, his simplicity, and his prudence as a teacher. He was especially devoted to the Blessed Virgin. Besides being the superior general of about 9,000 Capuchin friars in Italy, France, Belgium, Spain, and Switzerland, Lawrence had a splendid reputation as a missionary and as a diplomat. In 1959, Pope John XXIII declared him a Doctor of the Church.

1era. Lectura: Gn 18,1-10a Salmo: 14; 2da.Lectura: Col 1, 24-28 Evangelio: Lc 10, 38-42

“Una sola cosa es necesaria”

La historia de Jesús en casa de Marta y María complementa la historia del Buen Samaritano, que la precede inmediatamente en el Evangelio de Lucas. Ambas historias son exclusivas de San Lucas. La historia del samaritano comienza con las palabras “cierto hombre”. La lectura de hoy comienza con las palabras “cierta mujer”. El samaritano es un ejemplo de cómo debe ver y actuar un discípulo. María es un ejemplo de cómo debe escuchar un discípulo. María, mujer, es una persona marginada en la sociedad, como el samaritano. Ambos hacen lo que no se espera de ellos. Como mujer, se esperaba que María, como Marta, preparara la hospitalidad para un invitado. Aquí nuevamente Jesús rompe con las convenciones sociales de su tiempo. Así como un samaritano no sería un modelo de buena vecindad, una mujer no se sentaría con los hombres alrededor de los pies de un maestro.

Ambas historias ejemplifican cómo un discípulo debe cumplir el mandato dual que comienza en el capítulo 10: amor a Dios (María) y amor al prójimo (el samaritano). Estos son los dos elementos esenciales de la vida en el reino. Sin embargo, al usar los ejemplos de un samaritano y una mujer, Jesús está diciendo algo más. Los códigos sociales y los límites eran estrictos en la época de Jesús. Sin embargo, amar a Dios con todo el corazón y al prójimo requiere romper esas reglas. El Reino de Dios es una sociedad sin distinciones ni fronteras entre sus miembros. Es una sociedad que requiere tiempos para ver y hacer y también tiempos para escuchar y aprender a los pies de un maestro.
