GOSPEL READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Mon. Lk. 18:35-43

Tues. Lk. 19:1-10

Wed. Lk. 19:11-28

Thurs. Lk. 19:41-44

Fri. Lk. 19:45-48

Sat. Lk. 20:27-40

The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice. Ps. 98

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways.

To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for “It will lead to your giving testimony” (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation.

Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.

Proposition N. 1.

By now, you have no doubt heard that Prop. 1 passed. While this is tremendously disappointing, and not the outcome we have been working toward and praying for, there is still much to be proud of and thankful for. Our deepest heartfelt gratitude to every single person who generously answered the call to raise awareness against Prop. 1. Our Catholic dioceses and parishes participated in a way and at an intensity that cannot be denied, and the polling and the election results prove it. Though the measure succeeded, the number of Californians who identify as pro-life has increased by almost ten percent since this campaign began. In contrast, the number of Californians identifying as pro-choice has dropped seven percentage points, from 62% to 55%. We've shown that we can unite and be winsome in advocating against the extreme, expensive, and unnecessary push for late-term abortion...

XXXIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

1era. Lectura: Mal 3:19-20a Salmo: 98; 2da.Lectura: 2 Tes 3:7-12 Evangelio: Lc 21:5-19

'Si se mantienen firmes, conseguirán la vida'

En el contexto de Lucas, el Evangelio de hoy aparece cerca del final de la enseñanza de Jesús en Jerusalén, justo antes de los acontecimientos que conducirán a su crucifixión. Sus advertencias y predicciones son ominosas, pero se pueden leer de muchas maneras.

Para aquellos que escucharon por primera vez el Evangelio de Lucas, estas pueden haber sido palabras de aliento. La destrucción del Templo de Jerusalén por los romanos pasó a la historia (70 d.C.); El Evangelio de Lucas, según proponen los eruditos, fue escrito entre el 80 y el 90 d.C. Su audiencia probablemente eran cristianos gentiles. Lucas aquí intenta interpretar la caída de Jerusalén para ellos y ubicarla en los planes de Dios para la humanidad (historia de la salvación). Al mismo tiempo, Lucas está sugiriendo a su audiencia que pasará un tiempo considerable antes de la venida final de Jesús. Es probable que los oyentes de Lucas hayan visto mucha agitación y estén ansiosos por saber si estas son las señales de la venida de Jesús. Lucas insta a una mayor paciencia.

En la segunda parte del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús advierte que sus seguidores enfrentarán persecución por sus creencias. Lucas presenta la persecución como una oportunidad para los seguidores de Jesús porque "les llevará a dar testimonio" (Lucas 21:13). En la persecución, la sabiduría y el poder de Dios se mostrarán en el ejemplo de los seguidores de Jesús. La perseverancia frente a la persecución conducirá a su salvación.

Aquí Jesús les asegura a sus seguidores que Dios está presente para todos los creyentes, incluso en tiempos de dificultad. En última instancia, Jesús dará testimonio de esto con su propia muerte. Como discípulos de Jesús, tratamos de seguir su ejemplo, confiando en la misericordia y protección de Dios, incluso cuando enfrentamos dificultades.
