EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME "C" – MARCH 2ND 2025 FOR EVERY TREE IS KNOWN BY ITS OWN FRUIT

The third and final section of Luke's Sermon on the Plain begins: And he told them a parable. There are actually four parables, three of which we read today. They are all about how to be a good disciple.

The blind cannot lead the blind. And a disciple cannot be a good disciple unless he or she has learned from the teacher. Everyone who is fully trained is like the teacher who knows how to cure the blind. Before you can be a good disciple and teach others you must take care of yourself. Do not try to take a speck out of your brother's eye until you have taken the board out of your own. Finally, only when you have purified yourself can you produce the good works that the teacher requires. Discipleship asks us to produce good deeds. But to produce them requires the integrity and purity of heart found in the teacher. When people see your good deeds they will know that this is because you have a good heart.

The final parable, which we do not read today, is about building on the solid foundation of rock and not on sand. This is the only way to face the difficulties a disciple will encounter and survive.

VIII DOMINGO ORDINARIO 'C' – MARZO 2ND, 2025

CADA ÁRBOL SE CONOCE POR SUS FRUTOS.

La tercera y última sección del Sermón de la Llanura de Lucas comienza: Y les contó una parábola. En realidad, hay cuatro parábolas, tres de las cuales leemos hoy. Todos tratan sobre cómo ser un buen discípulo.

Los ciegos no pueden guiar a los ciegos. Y un discípulo no puede ser un buen discípulo a menos que haya aprendido del maestro. Todo aquel que está plenamente capacitado es como el maestro que sabe como guiar a los ciegos. Antes de que puedas ser un buen discípulo y enseñar a otros debes cuidar de ti mismo. No intentes sacar la paja del ojo de tu hermano hasta que hayas sacado la viga del tuyo. Finalmente, sólo cuando estes purificado podras producir las buenas obras que el maestro requiere. El discipulado nos pide que produzcamos buenas obras. Pero para producir las buenas obras se requiere la integridad y pureza de corazón que se encuentran en el maestro. Cuando la gente vea tus buenas obras sabrá que esto se debe a que tienes buen corazón.

La parábola final, que no leemos hoy, trata de construir sobre cimientos sólidos de roca y no sobre arena. Ésta es la única manera de afrontar las dificultades que encontrará un discípulo y poder sobrevivir.

LENTEN DINNERS ARE DELICIOUS AND FUN!

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish has a long and wonderful history of offering fish dinners to our parishioners on the Fridays of Lent. These delicious dinners build community for all: the cooks, the servers, and of course, the guests. The faces of parishioners from past years' events tell the story. This year, there will be 3 dinners. We hope you will join us. The proceeds of the fundraising will be used to purchase a much-needed new kitchen stove with

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY TO OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST'S DESK...

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish,

Today's gospel reading is last part of the sermon on the plain. Jesus is teaching his disciples with the "parables": simple sayings, that are easy to remember and are full of wisdom. For example: "Can a blind person guide a blind person?
Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?", For every tree is known by its own fruit. I hope to see you at Mass so that we can meditate together about the parables!

I invite you to read the article about Our Lenten Dinners that build fraternity and community efforts to purchase a much-needed new kitchen stove with a grill. Shalom! Fr. Jhonnatan.
